

The menu screen will have the National Catholic Forensics League (NCFL) Logo along with two options - one for Speech and one for Debate which is the two events that they sponsor

When you click on the Speech button you will be directed to a screen with the 7 Speech Categories that will need timers.

The house on the bottom will take you to the home screen.

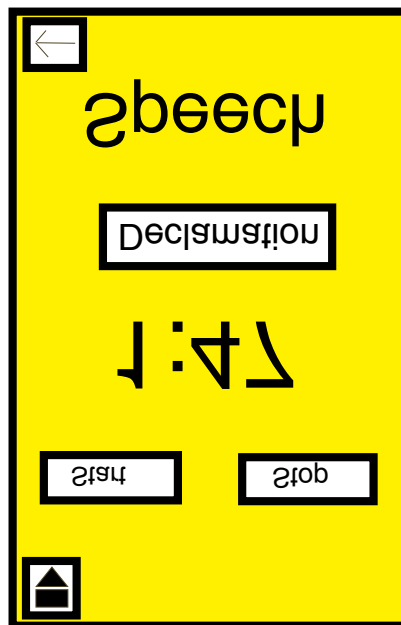

Declamation, Dramatic Interpretation, Duo Interpretation, Oral Interpretation, and Original Oratory all have the same timing scheme - they should be 8-10 minutes in length 10 being the maximum. The timer will count down from 10 minutes.

The arrow on the top will take you back to the previous screen so you do not have to keep returning to the main menu.

Once the timer has been started by clicking on the start button the background will turn green and start counting down from 10. It can be stopped at any time by clicking on the stop button. Clicking the stop button twice will reset the timer.

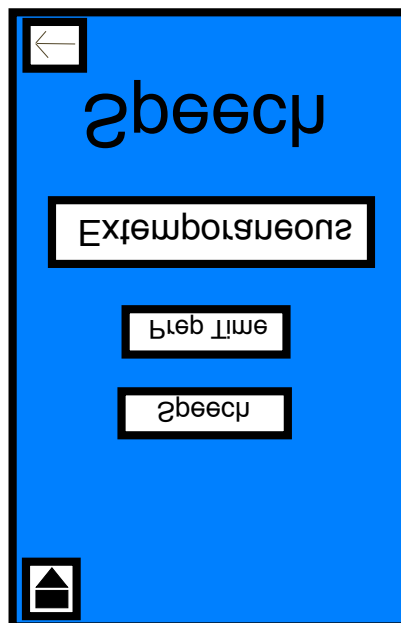

Once the timer reaches 2:00 the timer will turn yellow indicating a warning sign to the judge that the speaker has 2 minutes remaining

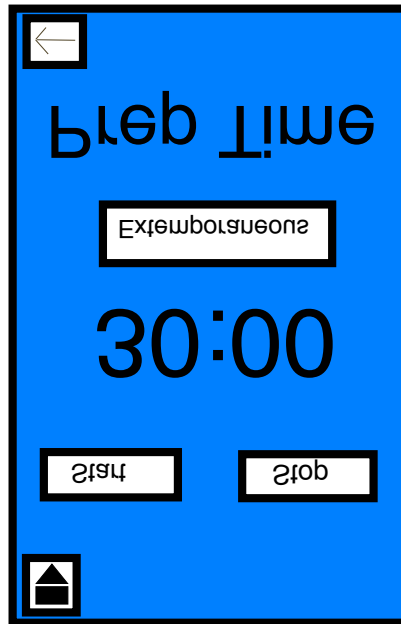

Once the timer reaches 0:00 the timer will turn red indicating to the judge that the speaker has run out of time.

Once the timer reaches 0:00 it will start to count up so the judge can keep track of how much longer the speaker went over time

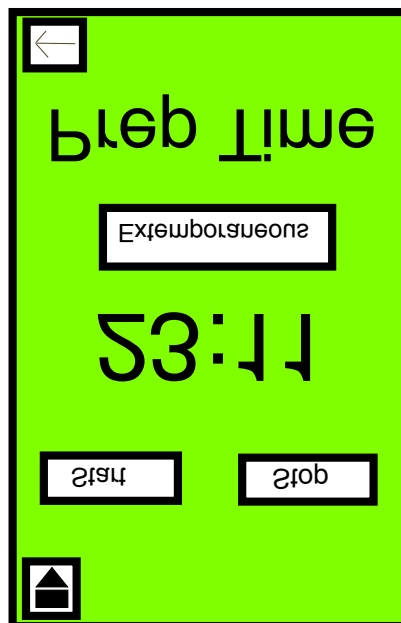

The 6th Speech Category is Extemporaneous. When that button is clicked from the main speech menu the judge will have 2 options; prep or speech.

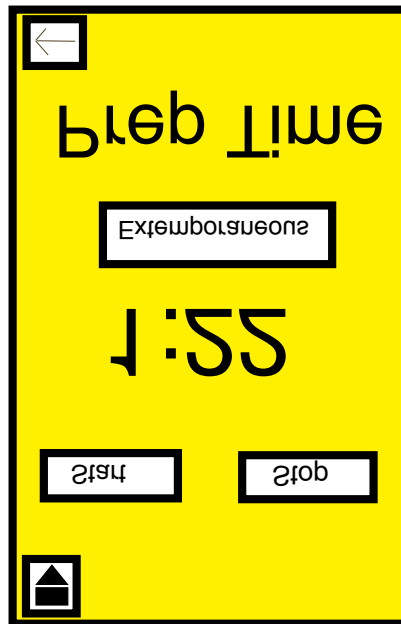

Each student will get 30 minutes of prep time to use newspapers and magazine (nothing from the internet) to read up on a certain topic that is chosen at the tournament.

The Prep Time clock needs to be able to run while other clockers are running.

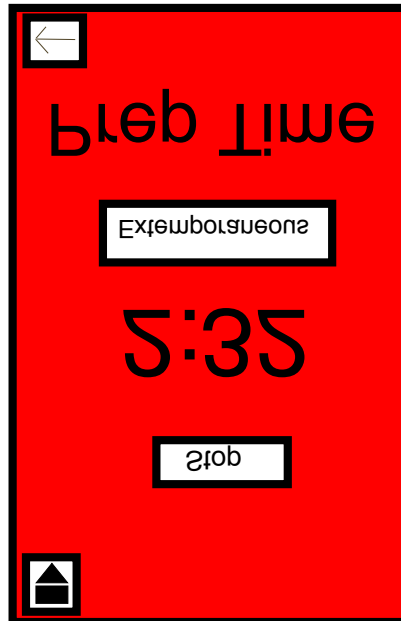

The timer will turn green when it is running.

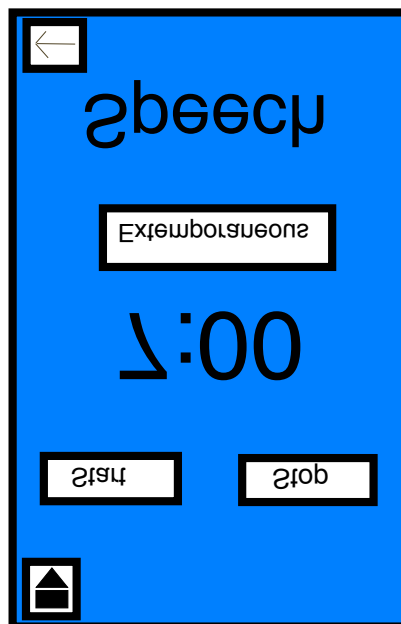

When there is less than 2 minutes the timer will turn yellow.

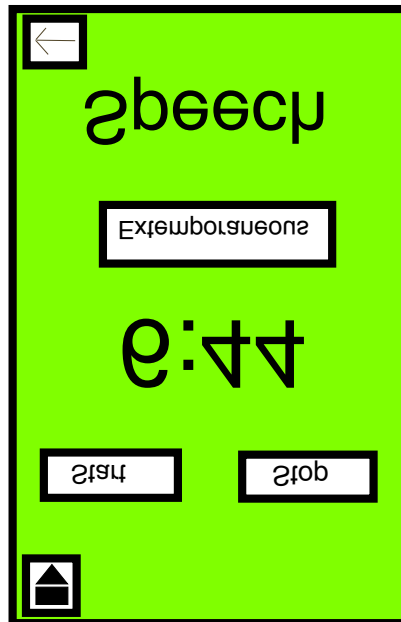

When there is no time left the timer will turn red.

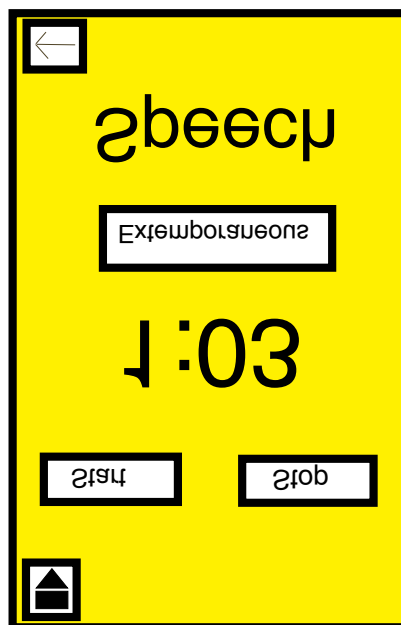

After the timer hits zero it will count up to show how much extra time is being used

The Extemporaneous speech lasts for a maximum of 7 minutes.

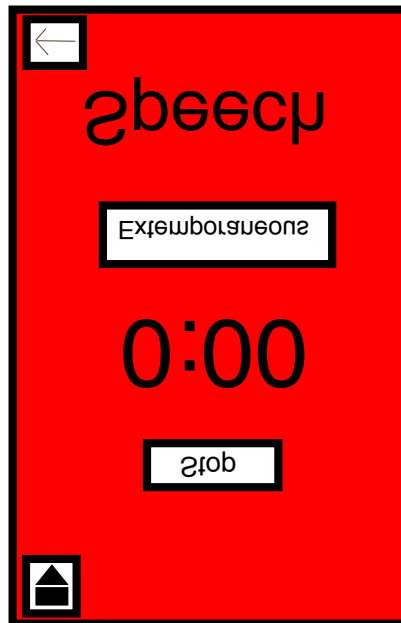

When the timer starts, the background will turn green.

When the timer gets to 2:00 minutes or less it will turn yellow.

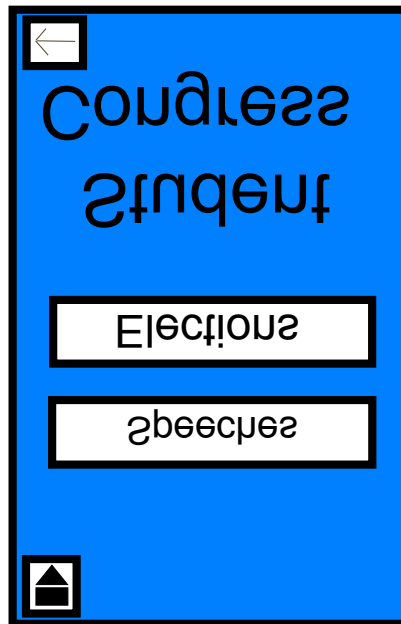

When time runs out the background will switch to red.

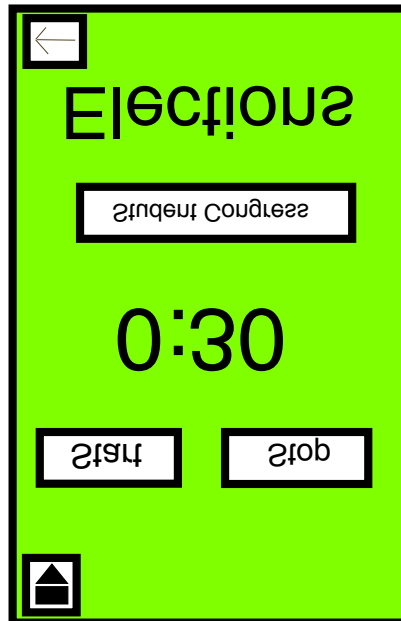

Once it hits zero, it will start to count up

The final speech event is Student Congress. There are two timers for Student Congress - one for the elections and one for the speeches

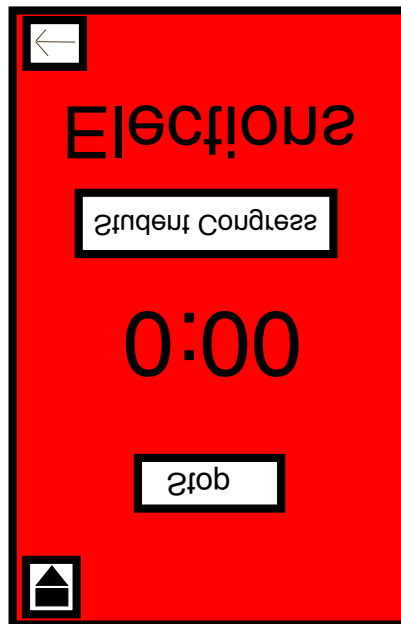

Elections are a maximum for 45 seconds.

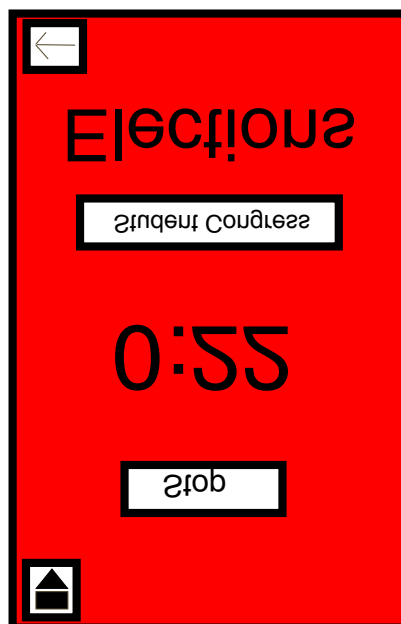

The timer will turn green once start has been selected.

It will turn yellow when there is 10 seconds left.

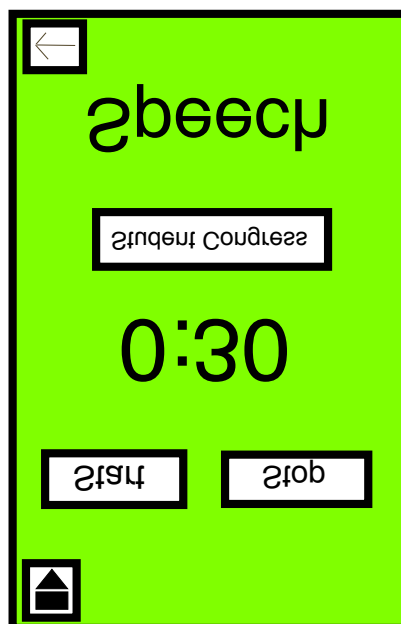

When the timer hits 0:00 it will turn red.

The timer will start to count up once it hits zero to keep track of how much extra time is taken.

The Student Congress speeches are 3 minutes each.

It will turn green once it has been started.

When there is 2:00 or less left it will turn yellow.

When the timer runs out it will turn red.

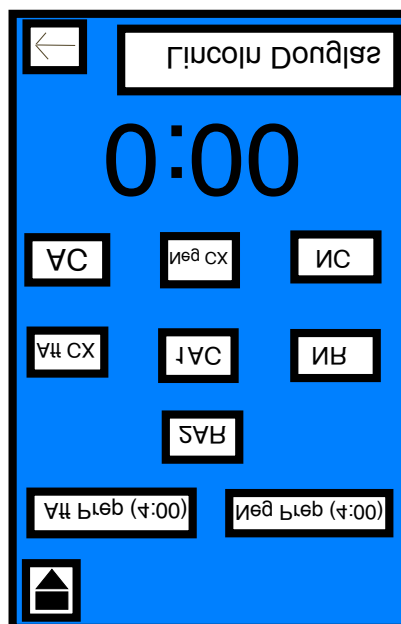

After 0:00 it will start to count up to track how much extra

This is the end of the Speech Timer -
The rest of the timer will be for the
